

NOMINATION

The members of the Central European Bioenergy Centre Committee herewith approve the nomination of the

IUNG - Institute of Soil and Plant Cultivation

as

Central European Bioenergy Centre (CEBC).

Vito Pignatelli

Italian Biomass Association (ITABIA), Italy

Lutz Mez

Environmental Policy Research Centre
(FFU), Germany

Berlin, March

2012

- * The confirmation gives the above institution the right to carry the title 'Central European Bioenergy Centre' together with the institution's name & the CEBC logo on the institutions' website.
- * CEBC will support the use of bioenergy in order to contribute to reaching the sectoral targets set by Member States in the National Renewable Energy Action Plans (nREAPs).
- * CEBC will work towards a sustainable exploitation of existing biomass resources & the mobilisation of new biomass resources for heat, electricity & biofuels.
- * CEBC will inform on & promote sustainable bioenergy technologies & innovative concepts for heating /cooling, biofuels and electricity generation from biomass.
- * This nomination does not constitute any claim to funding by the project 4Biomass.