

NOMINATION

The members of the Central European Bioenergy Centre Committee herewith approve the nomination of the

Energetika Vransko d.o.o.

as

Central European Bioenergy Centre (CEBC).

Magdalena Rogulska

Senior Researcher, Automotive Industry
Institute (PIMOT), Poland

Lutz Mez

Research Director, Environmental Policy
Research Centre (FFU), Germany

Warsaw and Berlin, November

2011

- * The confirmation gives the above institution the right to carry the title 'Central European Bioenergy Centre' together with the institution's name & the CEBC logo on the institutions' website.
- * CEBC will support the use of bioenergy in order to contribute to reaching the sectoral targets set by Member States in the National Renewable Energy Action Plans (nREAPs).
- * CEBC will work towards a sustainable exploitation of existing biomass resources & the mobilisation of new biomass resources for heat, electricity & biofuels.
- * CEBC will inform on & promote sustainable bioenergy technologies & innovative concepts for heating /cooling, biofuels and electricity generation from biomass.
- * This nomination does not constitute any claim to funding by the project 4Biomass.